

From the desk of HAROLD BRAZIL
At-Large Councilmember
Chair, Committee on Economic Development

1350 Pennsylvania Ave, NW, Suite 404
Washington, D.C., 20004 (202) 724-8174

For the Week ending January 11, 2002

EMAIL: hbrazil@dccouncil.washington.dc.us or visit our website: www.haroldbrazil.com

Restaurant Week Returns! January 14-27, 2002

Harold Brazil, Chair of the Committee on Economic Development, is excited to support the return of Restaurant Week. Over 70 restaurants are participating in the event, and will offer special lunch and dinner menus priced at $20.02 and $30.02 for three-course meals. "Restaurant Week is a great way to entice DC residents and those from the metropolitan area to spend an evening in DC. I am hosting Brazil's Bussin' Buffet—a visit to seven restaurants—on Thursday, January 17, 2002," stated Mr. Brazil. Mr. Brazil invited other City Councilmembers, Mayor Anthony Williams, Eric Price, Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development, local sports figures, representatives of Restaurant Association Metropolitan Washington and others to join him on Brazil's Bussin' Buffet. A complete list of restaurants participating in Restaurant Week is available at www.haroldbrazil.com.

Housing Legislation Passed Final Reading on Council

Harold Brazil is pleased to announce that City Council passed monumental housing legislation, the Housing Act of 2002. "I would like to thank everyone for all the effort they put into passing this bill. Personally, I fought particularly hard during negotiations, and through my steadfast commitment and negotiating, I believe we wound up with the best bill we could get for our citizens," stated Brazil.

Jack Kent Cooke Foundation Launches Scholarship Program

The Jack Kent Cooke Foundation launched a scholarship program that will benefit local, deserving college seniors. College seniors who are residents of DC, Maryland and Virginia and intend to pursue professional degrees are eligible to receive up to $50,000 a year for up to six years. Applications for the 2002-2003 academic year must be received by February 1, 2002. The forms can be downloaded at www.jackkentcookefoundation.org. More information is also available at 1-800-498-6478. "This is a tremendous opportunity for our best and brightest. I hope our students avail themselves of these resources," stated Brazil.